Greenville, S.C. (January 21, 2007) - The Board of Commissioners at Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority announces the election of the new 2008 Chairman: J.D. Martin.

Martin, a Greer resident, is elected as Chairman after serving as Vice-Chairman in 2007. A Commissioner since 2001, Martin's experience in building and development has proven valuable to Western Carolina's Board. Martin has worked for over 25 years in land planning and development and in the home-building industry. Additionally, Martin's business, administrative and problem-solving skills will continue to be an asset to Western Carolina's Board.

Martin is currently the CEO of Arbor Engineering, Inc. and received a bachelor's degree in biology from the University of South Carolina and a master's degree and Ph.D. from Clemson University.

Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority serves as a clean water provider to more than 400,000 industrial, commercial and residential customers in Greenville County and parts of Anderson, Spartanburg and Laurens Counties. Western Carolina operates and maintains 300 miles of major sewer trunk lines and 10 major wastewater treatment facilities.
